NEW SUPER POWER Cleaners

... simply more suction

These two powerful new British built cleaners produce considerably more suction at the cleaning head than any other uprights currently on sale in the U.K.

Whether you choose the Super Power 550 or the Electronic 560 with its sophisticated motor speed control, you can be sure of outstanding cleaning performance all around your home.

Powerful smooth-running motors driving twin high-speed fan assemblies ensure really efficient air flow and high suction. In addition, extra wide cleaning heads and brush/beater rollers clean more on per stroke and flared edge bristles, together with side suction channels, give really effective edge-cleaning.

A further plus with our high-suction design comes when you switch to the optional accessories for above-the-floor cleaning. The lightweight hose simply plus into the cleaner and the airflow is automatically re-directed to give the same powerful suction.

● Plus other exciting and advanced features.

John Bond

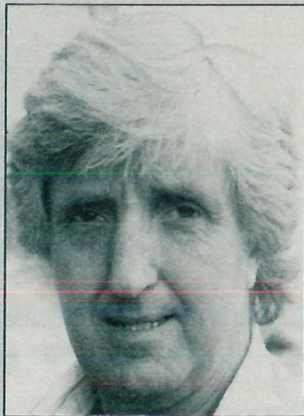

I WAS delighted with our splendid win over Gillingham at Priestfield Stadium and that was just the result we needed to improve our patchy away record in Third Division matches.

As I said in the programme for the Oxford game on Tuesday, John Benson told me that the attitude of the players in the game at Doncaster was good, the performance first-class and the result fully deserved. That was certainly the case all over again at Gillingham, where it is never easy for visiting teams to collect three points. It was a very important game for us, but the team displayed a determined approach and it was so pleasing to see.

Wayne Biggins struck again with a fine header about 10 minutes from the end but we were desperately close to scoring on several occasions before that and took a real grip on events in the second-half. Billy Hamilton was unlucky with a header that struck the bar, while Tommy Hutchison went past a couple of defenders a minute later and clipped the post with another fine effort. Gillingham didn't throw in the towel after our goal and put some pressure on us in the closing stages, but, honestly, it would have been a travesty of justice on the balance of play over the 90 minutes if they had managed to get an equaliser.

We made intensive efforts to sign additional players last week before the transfer deadline but ended up feeling very frustrated.

The most irritating feature of all was Chesterfield's decision to let midfield player Alan Birch join Rotherham after they had clearly agreed for him to come to us on loan with a view to a permanent transfer at a later stage. In my book an agreement is an agreement, but Chesterfield most definitely broke the one they made with us over Birch. It also prevented us from signing another player on loan on the day of the deadline because Chesterfield had given us their assurance that Birch would join us and I had even spoken to the player himself about it before Arthur Bellamy went to Saltergate to pick up the transfer documents. There is no way I will do business with Chesterfield FC ever again after the way they treated us last week.

Welcome to our neighbours Bolton. They are in a good position in the League table and if this afternoon's match is anything like as good as the one we played against them at Burden Park in September it will provide plenty of entertainment.

Turf Moor TOPICS

YET another example of how opposing managers hand out pre-match tributes to the Clarets and, at the same time boost their own players' determination to win 'this big one' came at Gillingham. 'Gills' boss Keith Peacock, speaking on local radio on Friday night before the game, said that with the skill the Clarets had, they should be 20 points ahead of other clubs in the Third Division.

TODAY'S visitors, Bolton Wanderers, made their first-ever visit to Newport County's ground last Saturday and must have thought it was a happy hunting ground when they went three up by half-time. County pulled a couple of goals back in the second half but Bolton got home by 3-2 to make the long journey home more pleasant.

ALTHOUGH Burnley were badly let-down by Chesterfield's decision to allow midfield player Alan Birch to join Rotherham after agreeing for him to sign here on loan, three full-time professional signings were made just before the transfer deadline.

They are right-back Phil Malley, aged 18, midfielder Paul Campbell, 20, and striker Graham Bassett, 19. All three come from the north-east of England and have impressed while on trial in our reserve side in the First Division of the Central League.

IT WAS good to see two of our former wingers, Irish international Terry Cochrane and Phil Caveney, at Priestfield Stadium last Saturday.

Terry, who moved to Middlesbrough from Turf Moor after starting his career with Coleraine, didn't play against the Clarets because of suspension.

But Phil made another full appearance for the Gills, although he has been substitute on about a dozen occasions so far. Incidentally, he scored a goal after 42 seconds on his full debut against Third Division leaders Oxford at the Manor Ground recently and it turned out to be the winner. Both players sent their good wishes to their friends in Burnley.

CONGRATULATIONS to Billy Hamilton and Brian Flynn on being voted by their fellow professionals into the PFA Third Division Select. It also included ex-Claret Colin Morris, now with Sheffield United.

The team picked was: Felgate (Lincoln), Nisbet (Plymouth), Bruce (Gillingham), Shotton (Oxford), McDonald (Oxford), Brock (Oxford), Hebbard (Oxford), Flynn (Burnley), Edwards (Sheffield United), Hamilton (Burnley), Morris (Sheffield United).

The players named Liverpool's Ian Rush Player of the Year. The Young Player of the Year award went to Paul Walsh (Luton).

TWO former Burnley players ran into injury problems last Saturday Martin Dobson, who, of course, began his career with Bolton, sustained a hamstring strain on his home debut as Bury player-manager. He conceded a penalty and Hereford won 4-1 at Gigg Lane.

And Andy Wharton scored one of Chester's goals in a 3-3 draw at Blackpool, but badly strained an ankle.

LOCAL Press comments on the win at Gillingham. Keith McNee (Lancashire Evening Telegraph): "There is plenty of potential for the remainder of the season in the idea of having Tommy Hutchison playing wide on the right and Steve Daley on the opposite flank. Their influence stood out very clearly, and it was fitting that the corner which led to the winner should be forced by Hutchison and hoisted over by Daley for Wayne Biggins to score his ninth goal in 12 matches."

Granville Shackleton (Burnley Express): "This was a well-earned victory for Clarets who followed up their midweek display at Doncaster with another which was a triumph for their teamwork".

LAST weekend's win at Newport which gave Bolton their fifth away win of the season was also a firm indication that they have not given up in the promotion race. The arrival of Neil Whatmore, on loan from Oxford, has coincided with a return to form for a side which started the season in such magnificent style.

The drastic cutbacks taken last summer to ease their financial burden appeared to have little effect on team performance as Bolton opened with home victories over two sides currently in the leading group. A 2-0 victory over Wimbledon was followed by an 8-1 thrashing of Walsall as the Wanderers joined the early season pacesetters.

Four teams can afford to part with players of the calibre of Peter Reid, Chris Thompson, Jim McDonagh and Tony Henry, but player/manager John McGovern has moulded his side into an efficient unit and they have proved on their day they are as good as any side in the division.

Over the years the 'Wanderers' have had their fair share of success, although whilst members of Division One for over 60 years they never won the League Championship. Twice Second Division champions, they were champions of Division Three in 1973. It is, however, in the F.A. Cup they have made headlines, the first time being way back in 1923 when they beat West Ham 2-0 in the 'White Horse final', the first final to be staged at Wembley. Winners again in 1928 and 1929 they carried off the trophy once more in 1958 when two goals from England international Nat Lofthouse were enough to beat a Manchester United side just recovering from the Munich disaster.

Highlight of this season has been the emergency of TONY CALDWELL as a striker of ability and courage. Signed by manager McGovern from Northern Premier League side Horwich RMI, he started his season on part-time terms but his scoring exploits soon put him amongst the full-time professionals. His talent in front of goal has now made him a marked man for opposing defences and he has been subject to some nonsense defensive work of late.

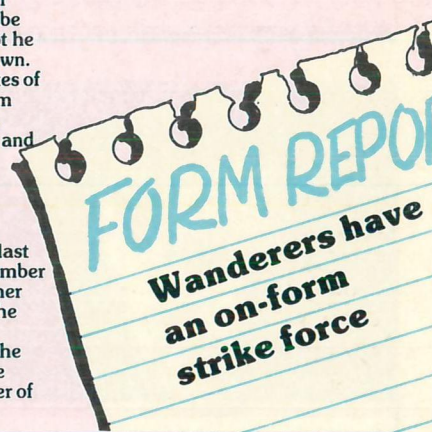

With on loan striker NEIL WHATMORE, in his third spell with the Burnden club, hitting the target last weekend Bolton have an on form strikeforce with former local schoolboy and England Youth international WAYNE FOSTER doing well alongside the quick-running JEFF CHANDLER. Signed from Leeds United in October, 1981, for a modest £40,000 fee, this livewire winger started his career with Blackpool and has won international honours with the Republic of Ireland.

Back last week after a lengthy spell on the injury list 'keeper SIMON FARNWORTH will be looking to hold on to the spot he waited so long to make his own. Injured in the opening minutes of the game against Rotherham earlier this year he has been replaced by former Oldham and Bury No. 1. JOHN PLATT.

At full back BRIAN BORROWS was signed from Everton just before the transfer deadline last season. Alongside him at number three RAY DEAKIN is another player to have appeared in the Everton blue. After an apprenticeship at Goodison he moved on to Port Vale before joining Bolton in the Summer of '82.

At the centre of defence PETER VALENTINE, who came from Huddersfield as part of the deal which took former skipper Paul Jones across the Pennines has formed a solid partnership with Northern Ireland international GERRY McELHINNEY. An aggressive enthusiastic defender he was on the fringe of the World Cup side in 1982 and finally gained recognition last November being a member of the side which gained a shock win over West Germany.

The arrival of the experienced GRAHAM BELL from Carlisle has strengthened the side in midfield, which early in the season comprised of three teenagers WARREN JOYCE, NEIL REDFEARN and STEVE THOMPSON. Despite their early baptism into League Football they have grown in stature as the season has progressed and the addition of the former Oldham player should benefit them even more.

THE daring antics of one member of Burnley FC's Supporters' Club is music to the ears of Burnley charity group Carmen. Daredevil football fanatic Steve Torkington of Montgomery Grove, Burnley, did a sponsored parachute jump to raise money for a stereo cassette radio player for Burnley's Carmen House.

Generous pals at the supporters' club were quick to pay up their sponsor money and the chairman of the club, Mr Allen Rycroft, presented Mrs Carol Robinson, sister-in-charge at the home, with the radio cassette player.

Puzzle PAGE

HERE'S a quiz with a difference . . . five questions to give you something to puzzle over. It could be a poser to wrestle with at half-time or it could give you something to ponder in those spare moments at work, at home or over a pint. The answers will be given in the next programme.

1. Name the four clubs, at opposite ends of Division Three who gained promotion from the Fourth Division last season.
2. Name the Football League manager who was player-manager for Nelson Football Club.
3. Name the three sides who in 1930-31 created club goalscoring records which still stand today.
4. Which club side has won the Third Division on more than one occasion. In fact they are the only side to win the championship twice?
5. In which country will the European Championship finals be held this summer?

Answers to quiz in Oxford United match programme:

1. The 1966 World Cup odd-game out in London was played at White City.
2. The four first division clubs knocked out of this season's FA Cup in the 3rd round by teams from the lower divisions were Arsenal, Manchester United, Leicester City and QPR.
3. Coventry City have never won the FA Cup.
4. Tony Morley signed for League champions Aston Villa in 1981.
5. The five Third Division 'Uniteds' are Oxford, Rotherham, Sheffield, Southend and Scunthorpe.

30 YEARS AGO...

WE took an early lead against Sheffield United at Bramall Lane through Jimmy McIlroy, and held it until well into the second half, but goals by Arthur Bottom and Alf Ringstead saw us undeservedly go down 2-1.

BURNLEY: Thompson; Aird, Winton; Adamson, Cummings, Seith; Gray, McIlroy, Holden, Shannon, Pilkington. Attendance 23,126.

We were now in fifth place in Division One. On the same day W.B. Albion reached the FA Cup final with a 2-1 win over gallant Fourth Division Port Vale. Ronnie Allen scored the matchwinner against his former club.

20 YEARS AGO...

JIMMY McIlroy paid his first visit to Turf Moor since moving to Stoke City. He caused us problems in the first half, but we took the points with a 65th minute goal from Alex Elder with a long-range piledriver.

BURNLEY: Blacklaw; Angus, Elder; Walker, Talbut, O'Neil; Morgan, Towers, Lochhead, Bellamy, Connelly.

This win lifted us into the top half of Division One, while Division Four Oxford were in mid-table after a 1-1 draw with Aldershot, Bill Calder getting their goal.

10 YEARS AGO...

WE pulled off a shock 4-1 victory at Leeds, who had lost only two games up to then. Paul Fletcher (2), Doug Collins and Geoff Nulty were our scorers, with Allan Clark scoring for Leeds, who still led Liverpool at the top of the table by three points.

BURNLEY: Stevenson; Noble, Newton; Dobson, Waldron, Thomson; Nulty, Casper, Fletcher, Collins (Ingham), James. Attendance 39,335. We were now in seventh spot in Division One, while Oxford, just above the relegation zone in Division Two were beaten 1-0 by Middlesbrough.

Coming THROUGH

OUR fight for survival in the First Division of the Central League wasn't harmed any in our last two games – at home against Bolton and Everton – when we managed to pick up four points from a possible six. Against Bolton Reserves we found ourselves a goal down at half-time, but after the break we came back well to equalise and the game ended in a 1-1 draw. We felt we were the better team and should have had maximum points.

Two days later at Turf Moor we faced Everton Reserves. We were without Gerry Gow, who had unfortunately broken his wrist in the game against Bolton. We struggled to put things together against Everton but defended well. It was a quiet night for both goalkeepers and it looked a certain goalless draw until left back Glenn Walker popped up two minutes from time to hit a fine shot past Jim Arnold to give us a 1-0 victory.

The 'A' team have had mixed fortunes in their last two games. Against Everton at Mellwood we were a goal down after only ten minutes but two goals from Andy Kilner (one a penalty) gave us a 2-1 half-time lead. A goal after the break from trialist Simon Turner sealed a fine win for the youngsters. Last week at Gawthorpe in atrocious conditions the 'A' team lost 2-0 against Crewe Reserves. But for a terrible refereeing performance the kids would have possibly got a result. Their effort and endeavour certainly deserved something.

by KEITH MACKLIN
Head of Programmes,
Red Rose Radio

MY admiration for Burnley Football Club goes back to a day in 1961 when, at Maine Road, I watched those skilful wizards of ball control, Jimmy Adamson and Jimmy McIlroy, cannily steer the Clarets to the championship of the First Division.

They beat City 2-1, and Adamson and McIlroy spent the last 10 minutes of the game playing the ball to each other around the right hand corner flag, with City's frustrated players unable to do anything about it.

To me, Burnley remains a First Division club, having a purely temporary spell in Division Three.

The fortunes of Burnley and the fortunes of Red Rose Radio are closely linked. Success on the football field means exciting broadcasting. Saturday afternoons with Phil Sayer on Red Rose, and the midweek soccer specials, are made rousing successful by goals and goalmouth thrills, reported live from the grounds.

3rd dimension

On the other side of the coin, optimistic reports, previews and interviews on our daily news bulletins, and on Saturday and Sunday Sport whip up crowd enthusiasm and help draw people through the turnstiles.

Ian Winter, the Red Rose sports reporter and editor, the team of reporters at all major Lancashire grounds, and our backroom staff in the studio, all are thrilled by success, and share the sorrows of failure. You know that Burnley have scored when Ian's commentary voice goes up several decibels.

Our idea of a perfect Saturday afternoon is one on which our four senior Lancashire clubs, Burnley, Blackburn Rovers, Preston North End and Blackpool all win their games. A perfect season would be one in which all four attain promotion, and certainly the Clarets have given their supporters a splendid run for their money this season, despite that frustrating away record.

At the commentary point in the Turf Moor grandstand we have suffered the surprise and frustration of defeat by Crewe in the Milk Cup, and have gloried in the fine attacking performances against Port Vale and Lincoln City.

Red Rose Radio is a Lancashire station, serving the people of Lancashire.

To our staff, this is the finest county of all, with the best and friendliest of people, and our recent afternoon's sponsorship is a measure of our faith in, and support for, the county's sportsmen and women.

Ideally, this afternoon will be crowned by a win for the Clarets and a boost for the still-burning hopes of promotion. Come what may, Red Rose Radio reporters and commentators will give full coverage and loyal support to a team with great traditions and, hopefully, a bright future.
